EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- This report covers data from January to March 2021, so court activity during this period has been severely affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. Figures published show that although courts continue to carry out urgent business and make more use of remote audio and video technology, the impact of COVID-19 is clear to see. It is expected that the limited operation of the courts during the COVID-19 pandemic will continue to have an impact on many of the published figures in this and future releases.
- The COVID-19 pandemic has had a further impact on administrative staff levels, with the business volumes being affected not only by restrictions on operations, but also the recording and processing of these operations. There is a consequent decrease in the volume of business recorded.
- Administrative case management reviews were introduced by the Lord Chief Justice as part of the coronavirus contingency arrangements. This has resulted in Judges investing significant time reviewing cases and making directions or orders administratively (where appropriate), and this has continued even as courts have resumed to support business recovery. This extra time is not recorded on the courts operating system (ICOS), and therefore is not reflected within the sittings times published within this report.
- This bulletin provides information on throughput at the High Court in Northern Ireland during the period January to March 2021 and commentary on trends observed for this quarter in each year from 2007. During the period January to March 2021:
- The Chancery division received 162 cases in this quarter, the total number of Chancery cases, Bankruptcy cases and Companies cases. This is an 82% decrease on the same quarter last year (905). 170 cases were disposed of in the Chancery division during January to March 2021, a decrease of 76% on the number disposed during the same period in 2020 (711).
- 937 writs and originating summons were received during the period January to March 2021. This is a 6% increase from the 884 received during the same period in 2020. 440 writs and originating summons were disposed during the quarter, a decrease of 10% from 487 disposed in the same period in 2020.
- During the quarter, there were 78 applications for leave to apply for Judicial Review, 34 applications for Judicial Review and two ancillary applications received. Comparable figures were 73, 19 and zero respectively for the same period in 2020.

- There were 20 adoption cases and applications received and 7 adoption cases and applications disposed of during January to March 2021. The corresponding figures for the same quarter in the previous year were 25 receipts and 19 disposals.
- 657 divorce petitions were received, an 11% increase from the 592 received during the same period in 2020. A total of 183 decrees were granted in the High Court during January to March 2021, a 1% increase on the 181 granted during the same period last year.
- During the quarter there were 544 sitting days, a 2% decrease on the same quarter last year (557). The highest proportion of time was spent on Queen's Bench business (24%).

1. INTRODUCTION

The High Court sits at the Royal Courts of Justice in Belfast and comprises three Divisions: the Chancery Division, Queen's Bench Division and Family Division.

Chancery Division

The Chancery Division deals with four main areas of business: Chancery, Bankruptcy, Companies and Probate.

Chancery Office

The main area of business in the Chancery office relates to disputes involving land and property. These include: disputes between vendors, purchasers, landlords and tenants; mortgage repossession actions; trespass; right of way; construction of a lease; and squatters.

Most actions begin with the issue of a claim or originating proceedings by the claimant against the defendant.

The Chancery section also deals with disputes involving copyright, partnerships, patents, execution of trusts, charities, inheritance and the administration of estates.

Bankruptcy Office

The Bankruptcy Office deals with all matters relating to insolvency. These include applications to set aside statutory demands, petitions (by creditors and debtors) and voluntary arrangements.

If a person cannot repay the debts that they owe, they may be made bankrupt. The most common situations in which a person may be made bankrupt are at the request of someone to whom they owe money (a creditor's petition) and at their own request (a debtor's petition).

Companies Office

The Companies Office deals with all matters relating to the Companies Order including: winding up petitions, insolvent partnerships and disqualification of directors.

If the Court makes an order to wind up a company it means that the company has gone into compulsory liquidation. The court will then appoint an Official Receiver (OR) to act as liquidator for the company.

Probate Office

The principal business assigned to the Probate Office includes Contentious and Non-contentious Probate applications, leading to the issue of a Grant of Representation in the estate of the deceased person, to facilitate the gathering in and distribution of the assets of the deceased's estate.

Queen's Bench Division

The Queen's Bench Division comprises of a number of business areas, namely the Writ Office, the Appeals & Lists Office, the Judicial Reviews Office, the Commercial Office and the Bail Office. These Offices are collectively referred to as The Central Office.

The principal business dealt with by the Queen's Bench Division is:

- Claims for damages
- Medical Negligence actions
- Commercial actions
- Matters involving contract
- Personal injury actions
- Appeals from the County Court
- Judicial Reviews
- Bail applications
- Admiralty matters
- Injunctions.

Each business area within the Queen's Bench Division has discrete functions, namely:

Writ Office

The primary function of the office is to manage the 'Writ Process' for actions in the Queen's Bench Division, from commencement of proceedings until the trial of the action or final determination. This involves a review process which is initiated approximately nine months after the last notification by a defendant that they intend to dispute the claim. The aim of the reviews is to progress cases to trial by dealing with matters between the parties which may delay the case being set down for trial. The Office is also responsible for providing adequately trained staff to act as Court registrars in all Queen's Bench Courts. The Queen's Bench Division deals with claims for damages that are large value, complex, or both, including libel and slander actions which may require a jury.

The lower threshold for claims to the High Court increased from £15,000 to £30,000 on 25 February 2013. Cases previously received into the Writ Office for claims between £15,000 and £30,000 may now processed by the County Court.

Commercial Office

Business relating to a 'business or commercial transaction' such as building contracts, sales of goods, insurance, banking or carriage of goods, may be assigned to the Commercial list, if so directed by the Commercial Judge. One of the ten puisne Judges has been assigned as the Commercial Judge. The Judge carries out regular reviews of actions entered into the Commercial List to ensure that the action is progressed to trial in a timely manner.

Judicial Reviews Office

Judicial Reviews are cases where the court considers if the decision reached by an inferior court, Tribunal, public body or Government Minister followed the proper procedure. The applicant must first apply to the Court for leave to apply for Judicial Review if leave is granted then the applicant has 14 days to apply for a full hearing of the matter.

Bail Office

This office deals with repeat bail applications, i.e. an application to release a defendant from custody who has been refused bail by the Magistrates Court. The Bail Order normally requires the defendant to comply with various conditions and may require money to be lodged or security to be given.

Family Division

The Family Division comprises of four key business areas, namely: -

- The Matrimonial Office
- The Office of Care and Protection (Children's Section)
- The Office of Care and Protection (Patient's Section) and;
- The Official Solicitors Office

The Matrimonial Office

The Matrimonial Office deals with the following: -

Petitions for divorce - to obtain a decree of divorce the marriage must be proved to have broken down irretrievably with proof of one or more of the following facts:

- adultery
- behaviour with which the petitioner cannot reasonably be expected to live
- desertion of at least two years
- two years separation where the respondent consents
- five years separation without consent

No petition may be made for divorce within the first year of marriage.

Petitions for nullity - a Decree of Nullity of Marriage is granted where the petitioner proves that the marriage is either void or voidable.

A void marriage is one that is legally invalid because, for example:

- either party was under the age of sixteen at the time of the marriage
- either party was already married
- the parties are prohibited from marrying, for example father and daughter.

A voidable marriage is one which is legal but may be nullified by order of the court because, for example:

- it is not consummated due to incapacity or wilful refusal (most nullities are on these grounds)
- where one party was suffering from a venereal disease in a communicable form, or was pregnant by someone else at the time of marriage.

Judicial separation - an alternative to divorce is a decree of judicial separation. This does not dissolve the marriage but absolves the parties from the obligation to live together. This procedure might, for instance, be used if religious beliefs forbid or discourage divorce.

Ancillary relief applications - During or after a divorce, the annulment of a marriage (nullity) or judicial separation, there may still be a need for the court to settle disputes over money or property. The court can make a financial order, known as ancillary relief, and may deal with: the sale or transfer of property; maintenance payments (for example weekly- or monthly-maintenance); and a lump sum payment, a pension sharing or attachment order, or both.

Dissolution of a Civil Partnership – A person (the ‘petitioner’) may apply to end (‘dissolve’) their civil partnership if they have been in the partnership for at least a year.

There are 3 main steps to ending a civil partnership:

- File a dissolution petition – the petitioner must apply to court for permission to end their civil partnership, and show reasons why they want to dissolve the relationship.
- Apply for a conditional order – if the civil partner of the petitioner (the ‘respondent’) agrees to the petition, the petitioner will receive a document saying there’s no reason the relationship may not be dissolved.
- Apply for a final order to legally end the civil partnership – the petitioner must wait 6 weeks after receiving the conditional order before applying for the final order.

The Office of Care and Protection (OCP) (Children's Section)

The principal business assigned to this Office is:

- Guardianship and Wardship of children
- Adoption
- Applications under the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995
- Applications under the Family Homes and Domestic Violence (NI) Order 1998

Wardship and Adoption

The principal business assigned to the Wardship and Adoption office includes applications in relation to the Guardianship and Wardship of children, Adoption applications and applications under the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995.

Family Homes and Domestic Violence

The Family Homes and Domestic Violence (NI) Order 1998, is designed to offer civil protection against domestic violence. The 1998 Order provides a single set of remedies which are available in all court tiers. Two main remedies were created: the non-molestation order and the occupation order. Both of these orders can be applied for by way of an ex-parte application; that is without the respondent or alleged perpetrator of the violence being present. The number of these type of applications are relatively small in the High Court, and are usually dealt with at this court tier, as they are linked to other proceedings being held in the High Court.

The Office of Care and Protection (OCP) (Patients Section)

Responsibility for the management of the property and affairs of people in Northern Ireland who, through mental disorder, are incapable of managing their own financial affairs is vested in the High Court under the provisions of Part VIII of the Mental Health (Northern Ireland) Order 1986. The 'Patient' is the name given by the Order to a person who is suffering from mental disorder and whose financial affairs are subject to the Court's control. A 'Controller' is the name given to those appointed by court order to manage a Patient's financial affairs.

The Office of Care and Protection, commonly referred to as OCP, is the department of the High Court in which administrative work relating to a Patient's case is dealt with under the supervision of the Master (Care and Protection). The Master is the judicial officer of the Court who is authorised to exercise any discretion, power or other functions of the Court and who may also, in particular cases, refer a question to the Judge for decision.

A Controller is a person appointed by the Court to deal with the day-to-day management of the Patient's financial affairs. They may be a relative, a friend, or perhaps a professional adviser. If there is no one else suitable or willing to act, an officer of the Court or the Official Solicitor can be appointed in the last resort.

The OCP reviews accounts operated by the Controller (on behalf of the Patient) on an annual basis and is also responsible for the registration of Enduring Powers of Attorney (EPA).

The Official Solicitor's Office

The Official Solicitor (OS) is an independent statutory officer holder appointed under section 75 of the Judicature (NI) Act 1978 (as amended by section 103 of the Courts Act 2003).

The OS has a wide range of functions primarily necessitating acting as next friend, guardian ad litem or 'Controller' of last resort (for certain minors or adults (known as 'patients') who lack mental capacity to manage their own financial affairs by reason of 'mental disorder' under Part VIII of the Mental Health (NI) Order 1986 ('the 1986 Order')). The OS also represents the interests of minors in a range of legal proceedings at the request of the judiciary.

2. METHODOLOGY

2.1 Data sources

Data contained in Tables 1 to 36 and Tables 39 and 40 use data that are inputted onto the Integrated Court Operations System (ICOS). This system was implemented across the Northern Ireland Courts and Tribunals Service (NICTS) over a two-year period from 2005 to 2007. While ICOS was introduced in the High Court during 2005, data derived from ICOS has been used as the source for official government statistics since 2007, when the implementation of ICOS across all court tiers was completed. ICOS is a live operating system used in each court tier to process every part of court business, from receipt of payments through to the production of final orders made. The data are input into this system on a daily basis by court clerks, and this information is checked and confirmed by another member of staff to ensure the data entries are correct.

Data contained in Tables 37 and 38 have been sourced from the Office of Care and Protection (OCP).

2.2 Methodology for generating data

Analytical Service Group (ASG) Statisticians based within the NICTS take a download of High Court information from ICOS on a monthly basis. The information is downloaded using a package called SharePoint, which extracts all the relevant data from ICOS into text files that are refreshed with up-to-date information each weekend. The text files are downloaded onto a secure internal facility to which only specified statistical personnel have access. The data contained in the files are identified only by numbers, names and addresses are not held. These statistical files are not transmitted outside the NICTS statistical team. ASG statisticians based in the NICTS import these data into the Statistics Package for Social Sciences (SPSS). SPSS is then used to perform extensive data validations to identify potential errors in the data and to ensure the data are reliable and robust.

2.3 Baseline and Time period

Data contained within this bulletin relates to the current calendar year, 2021, and the time series for this information dates back to 2007, when ICOS was adopted as the source for official government statistics. However, within this publication, comparisons of trends are viewed over a 10-year period.

2.4 Frequency of Publication

This bulletin is published on a quarterly basis. The next bulletin will cover the second quarter of 2021 and will be published on 13th August 2021.

2.5 Data quality and validation

ASG statisticians based in the NICTS have invested significant time and effort creating an extensive computer programme within SPSS to validate the information downloaded from ICOS. The programme includes over 100 checks against downloaded High Court data to: (i) check consistency over time and between variables; (ii) assess reliability of data using logic checks; (iii) check that variables fall within accepted ranges; and (iv) check with the ICOS Support Team in the event of any major discrepancies occurring since the last download. The validation program produces user friendly tables highlighting the potential problems which are circulated to the High Court as a validation report.

The High Court has staff who are responsible for: monitoring accuracy levels on ICOS, by carrying out sample checks on data entry and court resulting; ensuring all validations on ICOS and manual statistics returns are completed in a timely manner; providing advice and identifying training needs; monitoring the confirmation of ICOS court resulting, including the inputting of adjournment codes; and promoting awareness of the impact error can have, its wide ranging consequences and the negative impact on the reliability of management information.

The staff are given a two-week period from the date the validation report issues to have all records amended on ICOS. This ensures that the corrections are updated before the next download of files. After the files have been refreshed each weekend, all the data are then downloaded again, with the new download reflecting amendments made as a result of the validation reports. If any errors have not been corrected, they will continue to appear in the validation reports until the necessary amendments are made on ICOS.

The NICTS statistics team then ensure that all validations relating to the reporting period are amended prior to publication. Once these amendments have been checked, SPSS syntax programming is then used to generate the tables in the publication.

Data contained in this bulletin are currently provisional and will undergo further validation before being published in their final form in the 2021 edition of Judicial Statistics (published on the 24th June 2022).

2.6 Counting rules

Receipts are counted from the date the case is entered onto ICOS and the fees are receipted. Disposals are counted from the result date that a final order was made against the case, or the date an applicant withdraws or discontinues their application prior to the hearing, changing the case status to 'dealt with'.

2.7 Interpreting trends

Due to on-going changes to the legal jurisdiction of the county court, users should be cautious of comparing trends in Queen's Bench writs. Changes to jurisdiction to increase the upper limit of ordinary civil bills from 21st February 2013 (from £15,000 to £30,000) will have resulted in some cases that were previously High Court writs becoming ordinary civil bills. For further advice on differences in data between years, please contact the statistician responsible for this bulletin.

2.8 Revisions

Any revision to data will be applied in light of the ASG (NICTS) Statistical Note 'Policy Statement on Revisions'¹ which may be found on the NICTS Statistics and Research Publications section of the Department of Justice (DoJ) website. Incorrect figures or changes to this publication will be published on the web in a formal Statistical Notice².

3. FINDINGS

3.1 Chancery

There were 162 cases received into the Chancery division during the quarter January to March 2021, an 82% decrease on the same quarter last year (905). In total, 46% were chancery cases, 35% were bankruptcy cases and 19% were companies' cases (Figure 1).

In total, 170 cases were disposed of in the Chancery division during the quarter, a decrease of 76% on the number disposed during the same period in 2020 (711).

3.2 Queen’s Bench

There were 937 writs and originating summons received during the period January to March 2021, a 6% increase on the 884 received during the same period in 2020 (Figure 2). The decreasing number of cases received from 2013 to 2016 is reflective of the changes in jurisdiction introduced on the 21st February 2013, when the lower limit for Queen’s Bench writs increased from writs over £15,000 to writs over £30,000.

440 writs and originating summons were disposed during the quarter, a decrease of 10% from 487 disposed in the same period in 2020.

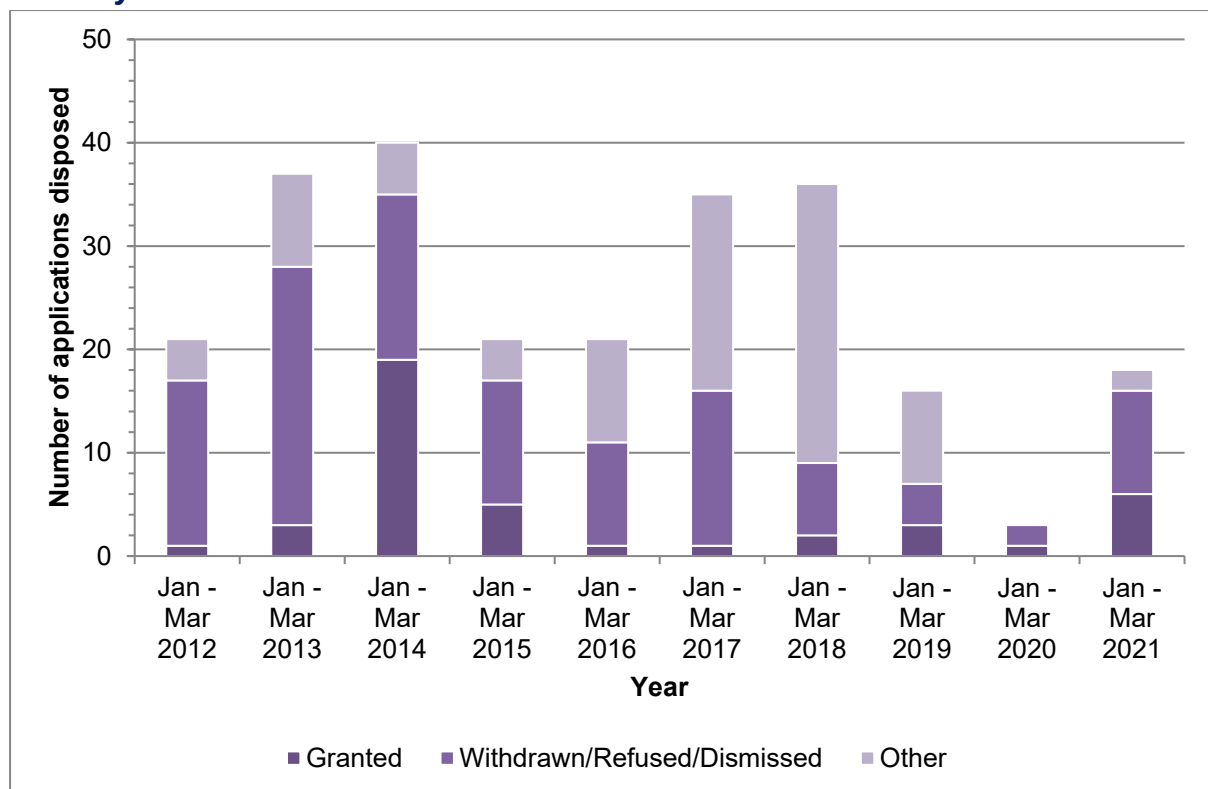

There were 52 removals and remittals applications dealt with during January to March 2021. This is a decrease of 15% from the 61 dealt with in the same period in 2020.

3.3 Judicial Reviews

During January to March 2021, there were 78 applications for leave to apply for Judicial Review, 34 applications for Judicial Review and two ancillary applications received. Comparable figures were 73, 19 and zero respectively for the same period in 2020.

The number of applications for Judicial Review disposed of during January to March quarter was subject to alternating significant change then relative stability over the past few periods, but decreased to its lowest figure in the previous January to March quarter in 2020. Since then, it has increased to the current figure of 18, which is the one of the lowest number of cases disposed in the January to March quarter in the time-series shown and overall (Figure 3).

3.4 Probate

There were 1,476 grants issued in the probate office during the period, an increase of 10% from the 1,336 issued in the same period in 2020.

3.5 Wardship and Adoption

There were 20 adoption cases and applications received and seven adoption cases and applications disposed of during January to March 2021. The corresponding figures for the same quarter in the previous year were 25 receipts and 19 disposals (Figure 4).

Figure 4: Adoption cases and applications received and disposed: January to March 2012 to January to March 2021

The average time taken in weeks from issue to disposal for an adoption case/application was 45 weeks, an increase of 21 weeks in average time taken compared to the same period last year, when the average time taken was 24 weeks.

3.6 Matrimonial

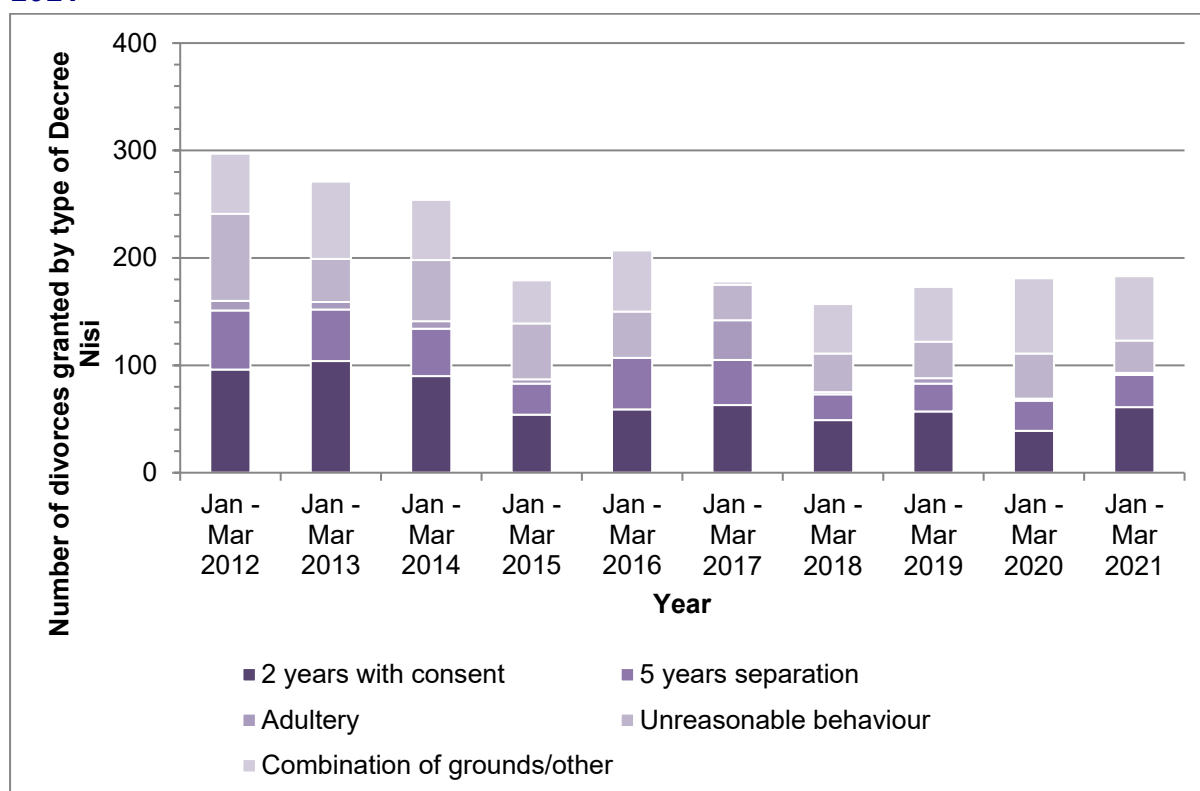

During the period January to March 2021, there were 657 divorce petitions lodged in the High Court, of which 382 (58%) were lodged by the wife. Comparable figures were 592 and 367 (62%) respectively for the same period in 2020.

While all divorce petitions are lodged in the High Court, decrees and absolutes are issued in both the High Court and County Court.

183 decrees were granted in the High Court in January to March 2021, an increase of 1% on the 181 decrees granted during the same period in 2020 (Figure 5).

The main type of decree granted in January to March 2021 was ‘2 years with consent’, accounting for 33% of cases (61), followed by ‘Combination of grounds/ other’, also representing 33% of cases (60) (Figure 5).

A total of 172 decrees absolute were issued during the quarter, a decrease of 14% on the 200 granted during the same period last year. The most common type of decree absolute issued during January to March 2021 was ‘2 years with consent’, accounting for 37% of cases (63), followed by ‘Combination of grounds/ other’, accounting for 30% of cases (33).

The average time taken from the issue of a divorce petition to the date the decree was granted was 50 weeks. This compares to 53 weeks during the same period last year.

3.7 Patients

There were 603 new referrals in the Patients section during the quarter January to March 2021, an increase of 23% compared to the 489 received during the same quarter in 2020.

3.8 Official Solicitor's

As described in the most recent annual publication, 'Judicial Statistics 2019'³ and the statistical notice describing revisions to the 2018 version⁴, the Official Solicitor's Office conducted a substantial manual exercise in preparation for a new computer system. This resulted in data being supplied in a new format for the 2019 annual publication and required the revision of annual 2018 data. The Official Solicitor's Office has resumed supplying quarterly data, but in its new form, which is not comparable to that previously supplied; future comparisons will be made using the annual 2019 data and the quarterly 2020 data as the starting points.

In the current quarter, the Official Solicitor's Office received 24 cases, ended the quarter with a current caseload of 292 cases and disposed of 48 cases. These figures compare to 32 cases received, 282 current cases and 5 cases disposed of in the January to March quarter of 2020.

3.9 Sitting Days

There were a total of 544 sitting days in the High Court during the quarter January to March 2021, a 2% decrease on the same quarter last year (557).

The highest percentage of time was spent on Queen's Bench business (24%). The composition of total sittings times by business type is outlined in Figure 6 below.

This has resulted in Judges investing significant time reviewing cases and making directions or orders administratively (where appropriate), and this has continued even as courts have resumed to support business recovery. This extra time is not recorded on the courts operating system (ICOS), and therefore is not reflected within the sittings times published within this report.

APPENDIX 2 - EXPLANATORY NOTES

Ancillary application

An additional application made in existing proceedings.

Ancillary relief application

During or after a divorce, the annulment of a marriage (nullity) or judicial separation, there may still be a need for the court to settle disputes over money or property. The court may make a financial order. This is known as ancillary relief and may deal with: the sale or transfer of property; maintenance payments (for example weekly- or monthly-maintenance); and a lump sum payment, a pension sharing or attachment order, or both.

Application

The act of applying to a civil court to ask it to do something, for example to start proceedings or make an order.

Application for leave to apply for judicial review

The first step in the judicial review procedure involves the mandatory 'leave stage'. At this stage an application for leave to bring judicial review proceedings must first be made. The leave stage is used to identify and filter out, at an early stage, claims which may be trivial or without merit.

Bail variation

A change in the conditions of bail.

Call-over

An occasion in court where dates for all the cases in the next few months are fixed. It is important for the parties or their lawyers to attend the call-over.

Case

The proceedings, arguments and evidence in court and the court hearing.

Certificate of automatic discharge (Bankruptcy)

A document certifying the period of bankruptcy is at an end.

Commercial actions

The definition of 'commercial action' is broad and so a wide range of cases may be dealt with under those arrangements. Broadly speaking, they include any transaction or dispute of a commercial or business nature.

Compassionate bail application

An application for bail, usually for a short period of time, for personal reasons, such as to attend a family funeral.

Court Disposal

Includes all cases issued with a final order by a High Court Judge.

Court order

The enforceable decision of the court.

Creditor

A person who is owed money by a debtor.

Debtor

A person who owes money to a creditor.

Decree Absolute

The decree absolute is the legal document that ends a marriage. An individual (petitioner) must wait for at least 6 weeks after the date of the decree nisi before they may apply for a decree absolute.

Decree Nisi

A document that says that the court doesn't see any reason why a married couple cannot divorce. If the spouse of the petitioner does not agree to the divorce, the petitioner may still apply for a decree nisi. However, they will have to go to a hearing at the court to discuss the case, where a judge will decide whether to grant a decree nisi.

Default Judgment

A judgment in favour of one party due to some failure to take action by the other party. In most cases this will be a judgment in favour of the applicant due to the failure of the respondent to contest the claim brought against them. The failure to take action is the default. The default judgment is the relief requested in the party's original petition.

Disposed

The date the case is finally dealt with via a court or non-court result and the case is no longer in the court process.

Divorce

Proceeding initiated in order to dissolve a marriage. Dissolutions of civil partnerships are also included within these figures. Following the issue of a divorce petition in the High Court, if it is a defended case it will be heard in the High Court and if it is an undefended case it may be heard either in the High Court or the County Court (depending on the choice of the individuals involved). Initially a Decree Nisi, an initial order for divorce, is granted. Providing that no reason is provided to the court to challenge the nisi, a Decree Absolute, which is a final order for divorce that dissolves a marriage and permits an individual party to remarry, is made. A defended divorce is a proceeding in which an individual (the petitioner) applies for a divorce and the other party (the respondent) indicates that they wish to contest a divorce being granted at all, or on the reasons stated by the petitioner.
