Tackling Child Sexual Exploitation in Northern Ireland

Second Progress Report

JUNE 2016

Background

In November 2014, the Department of Justice, received the Report of the Inquiry in to Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE) in Northern Ireland, otherwise known as the Marshall Report. The Departmental Working Group originally established to contribute to the Inquiry was reconvened and throughout December and January 2015 considered the related recommendations.

The Departmental Response to the report and future plans were outlined to the Justice Committee in early February 2015 indicating that the Department would develop an Action Plan for those recommendations falling solely to the Department by 31 March 2015. The Department of Justice revised the Action Plan in August 2015 to reflect changes in lead delivery<sup>1</sup> as well as provide greater detail on the cross departmental recommendations relating to the development of a CSE regional strategy and cross border information sharing.

The purpose of the action plan was to build upon the progress already made at the time of publication as well as continuing to focus attention on how to strengthen the existing partnerships in order to respond effectively and collaboratively to this issue throughout Northern Ireland. Throughout its development, the Department of Justice, and its partners utilised key themes identified within the Marshall Report that would provide a structure for the work ahead, some of which relate specifically to co-joined recommendations.

This second progress report provides a further update on the work of the Department and the work of the wider criminal justice system since the publication of the initial Action Plan in early April 2015 and the first progress report in October 2015.

<sup>1</sup> Key recommendation 3 regarding the development of advice to parents, carers and residential workers as well as supporting recommendations 54 and 55, relating to out of hours service provision, are no longer referenced within the Departmental Action Plan as the Health and Social Care Board are leading on delivery. Progress will be reported by Department of Health, Social Services and Public Safety.

PROSECUTING PERPETRATORS

Recommendation	Action	Target Date	Outcome	Progress
Key Recommendation 9 The DOJ should establish an inter-agency forum drawn from across the criminal justice sector and third sector stakeholders to examine how changes to the criminal justice system can achieve more successful prosecutions of the perpetrators of CSE. This must be informed by the experiences and needs of child victims.	The Department of Justice will hold a workshop or series of workshops, if appropriate, to examine whether there are potential changes relevant to the criminal justice system that would assist in the prosecution of perpetrators and/or further support the needs of child victims.	March 2016	Increased understanding of the requirements to achieve more successful prosecutions	Status: (Delivered / Delivering / Delayed) Progress            In March, the Department held a workshop involving a wide range of practitioners from the Criminal Justice and Health sectors as well as community and voluntary sector organisations that provide support to child victims. The findings highlighted in the workshop report have been aligned to existing business plans with the various criminal justice organisations and this will be considered by the Department's Marshall Delivery Group in bringing forward a formal response to the report.

PROSECUTING PERPETRATORS

Recommendation	Action	Target Date	Outcome	Progress
Supporting Recommendation 43                      PSNI and criminal justice partners in the Prosecution Service and Court Service should continue to develop their approach to responding to victims of CSE in a way that treats them fairly and sensitively and avoids blaming them for offending behaviour associated with their abuse. This involves attitude, not just policy or process.			Increased understanding of the needs of young victims and witnesses of CSE.	A new E-Learning DVD package and resource pack is under development by police and social services. It is anticipated this will be available first half 2016 for roll-out. Likewise, a 'missing' children's training package underpinned by the 'Runaway and Missing from Home and Care Protocol has also been developed. NICTS continues to work with NSPCC's Young Witness Service and others to maximise the use of remote live links so that young witnesses can give their evidence away from the formal court environment. This reduces anxiety and helps with giving better evidence. In addition to facilitating these and other special measures the court will prioritise cases involving young or vulnerable witnesses (based on information provided by the parties) to ensure that their evidence is taken as early in the day as possible. Court staff and court clerks have customer service standards requiring them to treat all court users with courtesy and sensitivity. Where a child appears as a defendant the Youth Court Guidelines require that the child is treated appropriately and in line with on-going need to ensure that the rights of children are maintained as paramount and that youth courts are fully compliant with ECHR fair trial provisions.

PROSECUTING PERPETRATORS

Recommendation	Action	Target Date	Outcome	Progress
Supporting Recommendation 43                      PSNI and criminal justice partners in the Prosecution Service and Court Service should continue to develop their approach to responding to victims of CSE in a way that treats them fairly and sensitively and avoids blaming them for offending behaviour associated with their abuse. This involves attitude, not just policy or process.			Increased understanding of the needs of young victims and witnesses of CSE.	Continued - The Public Prosecution has established a Serious Crime Unit (SCU) to deal with all sexual offences cases including cases involving Child Sexual Exploitation. This Unit became operational on 4 January 2016 and is staffed by 10 experienced Senior Public Prosecutors and is headed by an Assistant Director who reports directly to the Senior Assistant Director . All Prosecutors in the SCU have received training on sexual offences including sexual offences against children as well as specific training on Child Sexual Exploitation which was provided by Barnardo's which included potential indicators of CSE and the particular needs of children who have been subjected to or are experiencing CSE. The PPS Victims and Witness Policy requires prosecutors to treat all victims fairly and sensitively.

PROSECUTING PERPETRATORS

Recommendation	Action	Target Date	Outcome	Progress
Supporting Recommendation 47 While we acknowledge the work already undertaken by the Department of Justice in order to avoid delay, robust case management is necessary. The DOJ should ensure that both statutory case management and statutory time limits are introduced in Northern Ireland. Both have already been the subject of clear recommendations by the Criminal Justice Inspection in Northern Ireland.	Provision for statutory case management has been included in the Justice Bill and the Department will introduce statutory time limits in the youth court. Following enactment of the Justice Bill, case management regulations imposing duties on the court, prosecution and defence will be drafted for consultation. The Department will keep the need for statutory time limits in the adult courts under review and will be considered in the context of the impact made by time limits in the youth court, the effect of the introduction of statutory case management and a range of other administrative reforms that have been introduced to speed up processing times for criminal cases.	October 2015 Summer 2016 Ongoing	Avoidable delay in the Criminal Justice System reduced.	Status: (Delivered / Delivering / Delayed) Progress The Justice (Northern Ireland) Act 2015 received Royal Assent on 24 July 2015 and the Department will make regulations which will impose duties on the court, prosecution and defence. The regulations will confer functions on the Magistrates' courts and the Crown Court, and will define the court's key case management responsibilities. A working group has been established and a first draft of the regulations has been developed and discussed. The draft is currently with working group members for comment and they are due to meet again on 13 April to agree the draft. The arrangements for consultation on Statutory Case Management regulations remain on target. The Minister remains committed to STLs and the Department launched a targeted consultation in December seeking views on: how the Criminal Justice (Northern Ireland) Order (2003) might be amended to facilitate a more flexible scheme; and an appropriate length of time for an STL. The consultation was due to close on 28 March but a request for an extension has moved the closing date to 18 April.

EXPLORING LEGISLATIVE CHANGE

Recommendation	Action	Target Date	Outcome	Progress
Key Recommendation 14 The DOJ should lead on a project to examine legislative issues highlighted in this report and bring forward proposals for change. Recommendation	Action	Target Date	Outcome	Progress
Supporting Recommendation 1 All agencies involved in awareness-raising should ensure that language used is meaningful to the target groups. Supporting Recommendation 1.1 All agencies both statutory and non-statutory should work with local communities to identify how they can best engage together in a way that will build up trust.	The Department of Justice and Agencies will continue to promote local community engagement, informed by SBNI's approach to awareness raising, in order to ensure a consistent and meaningful message is disseminated at a local level.	Ongoing	Increased awareness of CSE in local communities.	Status: (Delivered / Delivering / Delayed) Progress The delivery of these recommendations are led by the Safeguarding Board for Northern Ireland (SBNI). ## RAISING AWARENESS

				Continued - PBNI also convenes multi-agency strategy meetings in respect of individuals, under PBNI supervision, who are subject to Harboursing Warning Notices. PSNI continues to work with the SBNI. Key Recommendation 15 The DHSSPS should lead the development of a regional strategy to prevent, identify, disrupt and tackle CSE. Recommendation	Owner	Progress
Key Recommendation 2 The Inquiry encourages the PSNI to pursue its commitment to strengthening relationships with communities and with young people as a priority in the context of the current climate of austerity.	PSNI	Status: (Delivered / Delivering / Delayed) Progress A senior officer was appointed in early 2015 to lead the implementation of the PWC review. The activities were progressed under 4 thematic areas. PSNI worked alongside NIPB to agree how the implementation would be measured as part of the 2015/16 policing plan. In addition to the work being progressed as part of the RPA element of Service Frist, the review of front line policing has sought to maximise PWC delivery by addressing the need for cultural change not only through the redesign of role profiles but also through information and awareness sessions and the identification of shift patters and working arrangements that support PWC delivery and engagement activity. The change in District Policing Structures to mirror Council Boundaries also has supported PWC delivery accountability. Clarity has been provided to the service, particularly those in frontline roles, of what engagement is, who should be engaged with and why, and a range of options on how this should be done. This process is complimented by a community engagement tracker. PSNI continue to attend the NIPB Youth Advisory Panel meetings as well as host the Youth Champions Forum to better understand how the organisation can improve service delivery to young people by hearing from key representatives from the youth sector. Throughout 2014/15, the police service, represented on the Safeguarding Board for Northern Ireland, have continued to support the development of cross-agency guidelines on CSE alongside their efforts to raise awareness of this issue, including the first phase of SBNI's campaign which targeted members of the public who potentially are in a position to identify CSE e.g. taxi drivers, hotel staff and off-license staff. The PSNI have also contributed to the delivery of key information about CSE at various SBNI Safeguarding Panel Events, for the public and professionals, across Northern Ireland. Earlier this year, the police service published a 'Sex &amp; the Law' leaflet that provides information to both adults and young people about the law in Northern Ireland, including what is meant by 'consent' and who to contact if you are concerned about someone's behaviour. The leaflet has been translated into a range of languages and is hosted on the PSNI website and disseminated to a range of organisations. In June 2015, PSNI provided support to Barnardos, as part of the CSE Knowledge Transfer Partnership NI, in developing a DVD called 'False Freedom' and resource pack for supply to all post primary schools in Northern Ireland. PSNI is also supporting a Barnardos member of staff in CSE research relating to boys and young men. Finally, the PSNI have developed, and piloted, an E-Safety package, called 'Chat, Share, Think' available for children and young people in NI. 62 Officers have completed training in its delivery.

		Continued - The PSNI have embarked on a number of transformational programmes with young people examples of which are outlined below: Young Leadership Programme (TALK) – The Transformation, Advocacy, Leadership and Knowledge programme is a young leadership programme developed by the United States Consulate in conjunction with the Northern Ireland Policing Board and the PSNI. The aim of the programme is to support and develop emerging young leaders in disadvantaged communities and to provide leadership at community level. Youth Volunteer Scheme The Youth Volunteer Scheme was recently launched with pilot schemes commencing in Newry, Belfast and Ballymoney involving 70 – 90 young people. The aim of the programme is to provide young people with a supportive environment in which they can learn, develop and grow.

Supporting Recommendation 2 PSNI should take action to strengthen enforcement of licensing laws and especially those concerning the supply of alcohol to young people. Police and Community Safety Partnerships should lead localised approaches to address the issue.	PSNI	Status: (Delivered / Delivering / Delayed) Progress                      Through the current review of front line policing, District Policing Command seeks to better enforce licensing laws, including the supply of alcohol to young people. A Licensing Officer has been appointed in Belfast with responsibility for ensuring compliance with all aspects of Liquor and Entertainments licensing. This officer meets on a monthly basis with other statutory enforcement agencies responsible for licensing issues to discuss problem premises and review ongoing action plans. Any premises found selling alcohol to young persons will be immediately subject to an action plan leading to robust enforcement actions by all agencies. This partnership working approach has provided positive outcomes in terms of much stricter compliance across Licensed premises in Belfast. Police Districts continue to liaise with their local PCSP's. All districts have revisited licence premises and reminded them of their responsibilities; ensuring appropriate protocols are in place. Purchase by proxy though continues to remain a problem. Anti-social behaviour operations continue and alcohol confiscated, as does interagency work with Health &amp; Social Care Trusts including Residential Units/Children's Homes. CASE officers continue to deliver messages in schools and officers work alongside volunteer groups e.g. Street Pastors. Enforcement legislation led to the recent court ruling on teenage discos/nightclub/parties and conviction of licensed premises. Other initiatives such as underage misuse of substance DVD was produced in association with young people themselves, and is available for use in schools; posters for door staff regarding fraudulent ID; Joint licensing Group in Derry City &amp; Strabane involving Police, Local Council representatives, PCSP and City Centre initiative representatives.

Supporting Recommendation 17 Police evidence about the circumstances in which a child was found after going missing or putting themselves at risk can be vital to protection arrangements. PSNI should review current processes to ensure that, in all circumstances, information is recorded and transmitted appropriately, both internally and to partner agencies.	PSNI	Status: (Delivered / Delivering / Delayed) Progress                      Protocols on responses to missing from home are contained in 'Runaway and Missing from Home and Care' (RMFHC) Regional Guidance; Service Procedure 'Police Action in Respect of Missing Persons' and the 'Pathway for Promoting the Welfare of Separated and Unaccompanied Children in Northern Ireland'. A review of the above Service Procedure and the RMFHC Guidance has recently been completed, following consultation with young people through VOYPIC and was reissued to the service in August 2015. The above guidance is also complimented by SP 02/14 'Investigating Sexual Crime: Standard Operating Procedures'. In addition to these procedural changes, service structures have also been reviewed and changed so that a dedicated Public Protection Branch, incorporating a Central Referral Unit, facilitates a greater flow of information in a timely manner across relevant agencies. These structural changes, allied with the updated service instructions combine to address this recommendation. The PSNI's 'Missing' service instruction has been reviewed and issued to officers/staff. This sets out a clear protocol for the investigation of all missing persons but it also specifically addresses the unique issues associated with the threat of CSE. These instructions also complement the PSNI/HSC Regional (Runaway and Missing From Home) Missing Guidance
Supporting Recommendation 48 PSNI should conduct a review of resources and operational delivery in respect of digital evidence examination to ensure that any evidence of CSE is provided to investigators in a timely manner, and to avoid delay in the courts.	PSNI	Status: (Delivered / Delivering / Delayed) Progress                      A review is currently being progressed regarding resource demand modelling which may identify resource deficiencies. Work has also been progressing to automate digital evidence examination services utilising various projects one of which will improve imaging and dissemination of material for investigators to view and another which is intended to automate the examination of potential CSE material. Both of these projects are currently under development.                      From January 2016 the Child Internet Protection Team are responsible for classification of indecent images. This falls under Child Abuse Image Database (CAID) as directed by government. The CIPT will also be responsible for victim identification.

Supporting Recommendation 50                      PSNI, in its review and development of the Public Protection Units, should move to develop perpetrator profiling and a greater focus on perpetrators.	PSNI	Status: (Delivered / Delivering / Delayed) Progress                      The review and restructuring of public protection, within the service, has been completed, taking into consideration matters concerning staff, processes, technology, facilities and, importantly, victims/service users, as well as other key stakeholders. The aim was to better align resources to organisational objectives, including the safeguarding children and tackling child sexual exploitation. This will improve performance management as well as better structured and improved communication between the PSNI and external stakeholders, and ultimately ensure better protection for members of the public. Public Protection Units have been aligned to the 5 Health &amp; Social Care Trusts, under one single command structure, within Crime Operations Department. Public Protection Branch, as it is known, is led by a Detective Chief Superintendent. The Branch incorporates, as well, the work of the Child Internet Protection Team, Rape Crime Units, and Public Protection Arrangements for Northern Ireland (PPANI). Policy Leads have been brought under this same command structure to align practice and policy closer together. One regional Central Referral Unit (CRU) has also been created to, amongst other matters, provide a consistent and robust approach to the management of referrals and information i.e. those relating to child safeguarding and domestic abuse, as well as managing CSE related risk assessments. As part of the new Public Protection Structures, Daily and Monthly Management Meetings are held and focus, amongst other matters, on CSE offenders. Training has been provided to relevant officers in respect of surveillance and CSE. This is complemented with an awareness raising event in September 2015 where information was delivered on relevant legislation and processes associated in surveillance activities. Work continues on improving and updating the current CSE Risk Assessment tool based on the learning gleaned from Operation Owl and from newly appointed CSE officers in post. In addition to the above ongoing work, work continues in developing perpetrator profiling
