

Summary of Ycni advice to Education authority on the Review of Residential and Outdoor Education on the 1st of February 2017.

Ycni welcomed a comprehensive, evidence based review; affirmed the value of residential and outdoor education; stated their belief that there needs to be a policy and strategy covering both types of education; welcomed the fact that savings would be re-invested in frontline youth services; supported the contribution between statutory and voluntary providers; offered to work with the Education Authority in developing the policy and strategy.