EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- ➤ This bulletin provides information on throughput at the Magistrates' Courts in Northern Ireland during the period July to September 2017 and commentary on trends observed for this quarter in each year from 2007. On 31st October 2016, a single County Court Division called 'The County Court of Northern Ireland' replaced the seven existing County Court Divisions. As a consequence of this change, data are disaggregated solely by Court Office (Processing Office). During the period July to September 2017:
- There were 1,082 Magistrates' court sitting days, which was a decrease of 4% from 1,127 in the same period the previous year.
- 9,692 new adult criminal defendants were received in court and 9,430 adult defendants were disposed of. These represent increases of 6% in adult defendants received (from 9,175) and of 1% in adult defendants disposed (from 9,353) respectively, compared to the same period the previous year. These are the second lowest numbers of adult defendants received and disposed of during the July to September quarter since the time series began in 2007.
- The average waiting time in the adult criminal court from first hearing to disposal was 6 weeks, the same average waiting time for the corresponding period last year.
- ➤ 315 new defendants were entered in the youth court and 335 youth defendants were disposed of. This represents a decrease of 13% (from 360) and an increase of 7% (from 314) respectively, compared to the same period the previous year. This is the lowest number of youth defendants received and second lowest number of youth defendants disposed of during the July to September quarter since 2007.
- The average waiting time in the youth criminal court from first hearing to disposal was 11 weeks, compared to 10 weeks in the corresponding period last year.
- ➤ 1,206 new civil and family applications were received and 1,092 civil applications were disposed of. This represents a decrease of 8% (from 1,318) and a decrease of 5% (from 1,155) respectively, compared to the same period the previous year.
- ➤ The average waiting time for a case to progress through the civil and family court from date of receipt to disposal was 8 weeks, compared to 9 weeks in the corresponding period last year.

1. INTRODUCTION

A Magistrates' court (other than a youth court or family proceedings court) is presided over by a district judge (Magistrates' court) sitting alone. The present complement of district judges (Magistrates' court) is twenty-one. The Magistrates' court hears and determines less serious criminal cases, cases involving youth and some civil and domestic cases including family proceedings.

The vast majority of all criminal offences dealt with in Northern Ireland are tried summarily in a Magistrates' court. A significant number of these offences are offences against Road Traffic Orders, such as the Road Traffic (NI) Order 1995 and the Road Traffic Offenders (NI) Order 1996, sometimes described as the 'penalty points' Order.

Magistrates' courts also deal with offences where the defendant can choose trial by jury but decides to have their case heard in the Magistrates' court. If the defendant chooses trial by jury, the case will be passed on to the Crown Court. It is estimated that where the defendant has a choice between summary trial and trial on indictment, approximately three out of four cases are dealt with summarily. This is mainly because this mode of trial is much quicker and the sentencing powers of a District Judge (Magistrates' court) are more restricted than those of a Crown Court Judge - the most serious punishment which a District Judge (Magistrates' court) can impose is 12 months in prison, unless consecutive terms of imprisonment are imposed for more than one offence, when the limit is extended to 18 months.

The youth court deals with young people who have committed criminal offences, and who are older than 10 years of age, but younger than 18 years of age. The youth court is part of the Magistrates' court and cases are generally heard before a panel of three persons, a salaried District Judge (Magistrates' court) and two specially-trained fee-paid lay magistrates. Although the youth court can deal with the full range of criminal offences (save for murder), if a young person is charged with a very serious offence, which in the case of an adult is punishable with 14 years' imprisonment or more, the youth court can commit them for trial at the Crown Court. In addition to hearing criminal proceedings the youth court also hears proceedings relating to the care, protection and control of juveniles.

Magistrates' courts can deal with a limited number of civil cases as follows:-

- some civil debts, for example, arrears of income tax, national insurance contributions, VAT arrears, rates
- licences, for example, granting, renewing or taking away licences for pubs and clubs
- some matrimonial problems, for example, maintenance and removing a spouse from the matrimonial home
- welfare of children, for example, local authority care or supervision orders, adoption proceedings and residence orders (known as the Family Proceedings Court).

Data relating to business at the Family Proceedings Court is published on a quarterly basis in the NICTS Children Order Bulletin.

2. METHODOLOGY

2.1 Data sources

Information contained in all tables is sourced from data that are inputted onto the Integrated Court Operations System (ICOS). This system was implemented across the Northern Ireland Courts and Tribunals Service (NICTS) over a two year period from 2005 to 2007. While ICOS was introduced in the Magistrates' Court during 2006, data derived from ICOS has been used as the source for official government statistics since 2007, when the implementation of ICOS across all court tiers was completed. ICOS is a live operating system used in each court tier to process every part of court business, from receipt of payments through to the production of final orders made. The data are input into this system on a daily basis by court clerks, and this information is checked and confirmed by another member of staff to ensure the data entries are correct.

2.2 Methodology for generating data

Analytical Service Group (ASG) statisticians based within the NICTS take a download of Magistrates' court information from ICOS on a monthly basis. The information is downloaded using a package called Oracle Discoverer which extracts all the relevant data from ICOS into text files which are refreshed with up-to-date information each weekend. The text files are downloaded onto a secure internal facility that only specified statistical personnel have access to. The data contained in the files are identified only by numbers and names and addresses are not held. These statistical files are not transmitted outside the NICTS statistical team. ASG statisticians based in the NICTS import these data into the Statistics Package for Social Sciences (SPSS). SPSS is then used to perform extensive data validations to identify potential errors in the data and to ensure the data are reliable and robust.

2.3 Baseline and Time period

Data contained within this bulletin relate to the time series 2007, when ICOS was adopted as the source for official government statistics, to the current calendar year 2017.

2.4 Frequency of Publication

This bulletin is published on a quarterly basis. The next bulletin will cover the fourth quarter of 2017 and will be published on 2nd February 2018.

2.5 Data quality and validation

ASG statisticians based in the NICTS have invested significant time and effort creating an extensive computer programme within SPSS to validate the information downloaded from ICOS. The programme includes over 100 checks against downloaded court data to: (i) check consistency over time and between variables; (ii) assess reliability of data using logic checks; (iii) check that variables fall within accepted ranges; and (iv) check with the ICOS Support Team in the event of any major discrepancies that have occurred since the last download. The validation program produces user friendly tables highlighting the potential problems which are circulated to each Magistrates' court venue as a validation report.

There are Case Progression Officers who are responsible for: monitoring accuracy levels on ICOS, by carrying out sample checks on data entry and court resulting; ensuring all validations on ICOS and manual statistics returns are completed in a timely manner; providing advice and identifying training needs; monitoring the confirmation of ICOS criminal court resulting, including the inputting of adjournment codes; and promoting awareness of the impact error can have, its wide ranging consequences and the negative impact on the reliability of management information.

The Case Progression Officers are given a two-week period from the date the validation report issues to have all records amended on ICOS. This ensures that the corrections are updated before the next download of files. After the files have been refreshed each weekend, all the data are then downloaded again, with the new download reflecting amendments made as a result of the validation reports. If any errors have not been corrected, they will continue to appear in the validation reports until the necessary amendments are made on ICOS.

The NICTS statistics team then ensure that all validations relating to the reporting period are amended prior to publication. Once these amendments have been checked, SPSS syntax programming is then used to generate the tables in the publication.

Data contained in this bulletin are currently provisional and will undergo further validation before being published in their final form in the 2017 edition of Judicial Statistics (published on the 29th June 2018).

2.6 Counting rules

Receipts are counted from the date a served summons or a charge sheet is received by the Magistrates' Court office. Disposals are counted from the result date that a final order was made against the case changing the case status to 'Dealt With'.

2.6 Interpreting trends

Changes to practice within the judicial system in general and the Magistrates' Court in particular, may impact upon business volumes presented in this bulletin. One example would be the introduction of Penalty Notices for Disorder on 6th June 2012. These were new diversionary disposals aimed at dealing with minor offences as a direct alternative to a prosecution before the court. The impact of this change means that offences previously dealt with by the Magistrates' Court are no longer received in court, but are rather dealt with out of court, contributing to the decrease in Magistrates' Court business over this period. For further advice on differences in data between years, please contact the statistician responsible for this bulletin.

2.7 Revisions

Any revision to data will be applied in light of the ASG (NICTS) Statistical Note 'Policy Statement on Revisions' which may be found on the Statistics and Research page of the Services section on the NICTS website<sup>2</sup>. Incorrect figures or changes to this publication will be published on the web in a formal Statistical Notice.

3. FINDINGS

3.1 Magistrates' court sitting days

During July to September 2017 there were 1,006 scheduled Magistrates' sitting days, 25 additional Magistrates' sitting days and 51 special Magistrates' sitting days. This was a decrease of 5% (from 1,060), an increase of 79% (from 14) and a decrease of 4% (from 53) respectively, compared to the same period the previous year.

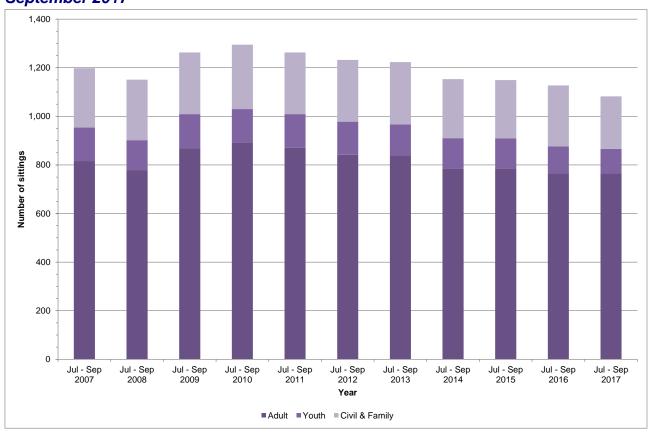

The Magistrates' sitting days for July to September 2017 may be categorised as follows:

	Scheduled	Additional	Special	Total
Adult Criminal	691	24	50	765
Youth Criminal	100	1	0	101
Civil & Family	215	0	1	216
Total	1,006	25	51	1,082

Within these 1,082 sitting days, 71% were adult criminal days, 9% were youth criminal days and 20% were civil and family days.

The number of sitting days across each Magistrates' business type has shown a gradual decrease since the July to September quarter of 2010, and is at its lowest point since the beginning of the time series in 2007 (Figure 1).

Figure 1: Magistrates' court sitting days: July to September 2007 to July to September 2017

3.2 Adult criminal Magistrates' court

During July to September 2017, 9,692 new adult criminal defendants were received in court and 9,430 adult defendants were disposed of. These represent increases of 6% in defendants received (from 9,175) and 1% in defendants disposed (from 9,353) respectively, compared to the same period the previous year.

The majority (74.1%) of prosecutions disposed of in the adult court were brought by PSNI/PPS (75.0% in the same period in 2016).

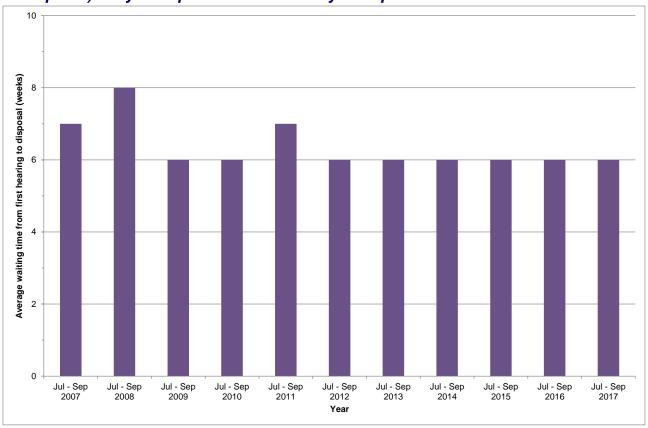

Although the volumes of both adult criminal defendants received and disposed have risen slightly this year, they have generally been decreasing in the quarter July to September over the last number of years, with the lowest levels of both being recorded in the July to September quarter in 2016, and have risen slightly this year (Figure 2).

Figure 2: Adult criminal defendants received and disposed: July to September 2007 to July to September 2017

The average waiting time in the adult criminal court from first hearing to disposal has remained stable at 6 weeks in the July to September quarter for the last number of years (Figure 3).

Figure 3: Average waiting times in weeks in Adult Magistrates' courts (First hearing to disposal): July to September 2007 to July to September 2017

3.3 Youth criminal Magistrates' court

During July to September 2017, 315 new defendants were entered in the youth court and 335 youth defendants were disposed of. This represents a decrease of 13% (from 360) and an increase of 7% (from 314) respectively, compared to the same period the previous year.

Nearly all (97.9%) of the prosecutions disposed of in the youth court were brought by PSNI/ PPS (compared to 97.5% in the same period in 2016).

The volume of both youth criminal defendants received and disposed has been generally decreasing in the quarter July to September over the last number of years, with the level of defendants received at its lowest in the current quarter and the level of defendants disposed increasing slightly from its lowest level in the same quarter of 2016 (Figure 4).

Figure 4: Youth criminal defendants received and disposed: July to September 2007 to July to September 2017

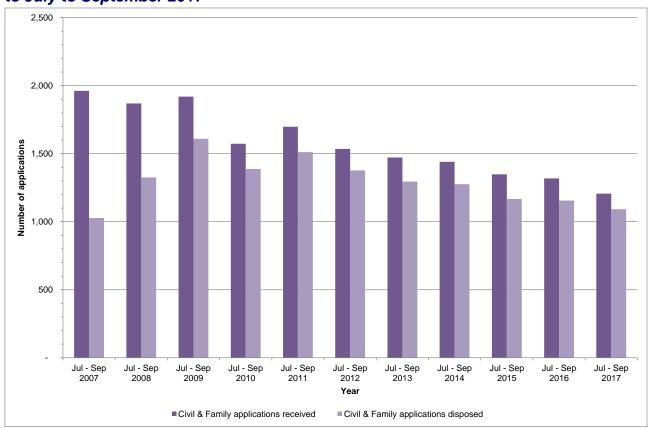

The average waiting time in the youth court from first hearing to disposal was 11 weeks (10 weeks for the same period in 2016).

3.4 Civil and Family Magistrates' court

During July to September 2017, 1,206 new civil and family applications were received and 1,092 civil and family applications were disposed of. These represent decreases of 8% (from 1,318) and 5% (from 1,155) respectively, compared to the same period the previous year.

The volume of both civil and family applications received and disposed has shown a gradual decline during the quarter July to September between 2007 and 2017, with levels of receipts and disposals reaching their lowest point in the time series in the current quarter (Figure 5).

Figure 5: Civil & family applications received and disposed: July to September 2007 to July to September 2017

The average length of time for a case to progress through the civil court was 8 weeks from date of receipt to disposal (9 weeks for the same period in 2016).

&lt;sup>3</sup> A court sitting day is counted as any day where the judiciary sit in court. It does not include time in chambers or days where the judiciary are sitting in chambers. Days are classified on the basis of, in the first instance, the earliest scheduled sitting. Where the start time for 2 or more sittings is the same, the days are classified on the majority of business undertaken.

Applications

The act of applying to a civil or family court to ask it to do something, for example to start proceedings or make an order.

Charge sheet

A charge sheet is a method by which PSNI can put charge(s) to a defendant and on which they will either release the defendant on police bail to appear at court within 28 days of the charging or they can detain the defendant in custody to produce them before a court at the earliest opportunity.

Civil and Family application

These are applications in relation to Children Order, domestic and family homes and domestic violence proceedings.

The procedure by which a defendant is returned for trial to the Crown Court by the Magistrates' court, if the Magistrates' court is satisfied that there is a case to answer.

Departmental prosecution

Departmental prosecutions are for criminal offences which are investigated by a department or other non-police body and prosecuted by either the Public Prosecution Service (PPS) or a separate prosecutorial body (e.g. motor tax evasion which is prosecuted by the Department of the Environment).

Disposed

The date a case is finally dealt with via a court or non-court result and the case is no longer in the court process.

Domestic proceeding (including FHDV orders, Non molestation, Occupation, Vary discharge)

These are orders made in respect of applications made under the Family Homes and Domestic Violence (Northern Ireland) Order 1998. These orders include non-molestation and/or occupation orders. A non-molestation order is made for the protection of the applicant and may prohibit the respondent from carrying out particular actions or behaviours and may include an exclusion zone. Occupation orders provide for the rights of the application to peacefully occupy a particular property without interference from the respondent. These orders may be varied to add or remove particular requirements and the order can also be discharged by the court to bring the terms of the order to an end.

Family Magistrates' Business

Family business in the Magistrate's Court (the Family Proceedings Court) covers applications brought in respect of the care and welfare of children, domestic proceedings and applications for non-molestation and/or occupation orders.

Finding

First hearing

This is the date on which a case first appears in court.

Fixed penalty Default

This is a fixed penalty which has been issued for a minor motoring offence and which has not been paid by the payment due date and has therefore gone into default. At this stage a summons is issued to bring the matter before the court to have a Judge set the default terms for non-payment.

Hybrid charge

This is also referred to as a 'triable-either-way' offence. A criminal offence that may be prosecuted either summarily (in the Magistrates' court) or on indictment (in the Crown Court). In the majority of cases, the prosecution decides how the offence is tried depending on the seriousness of the offence.

Indictable charge

A serious criminal offence where the defendant is usually tried in the Crown Court.

Indictable triable summarily charge

A serious criminal offence where the defendant can be tried in the Crown Court but may in some instances be tried in a Magistrates' court.

Penalty Notice for Disorder

These are diversionary disposals aimed at dealing with minor offences, such as non-motoring offences, as a direct alternative to a prosecution before the court.

Penalty Notice for Disorder Default

This is a penalty notice for disorder which has been issued for a defined offence and which has not been paid by the payment due date and has therefore gone into default. At this stage a summons is issued to bring the matter before the court to have a Judge set the default terms for non-payment.

PSNI/PPS prosecution

These are prosecutions for criminal offences which are investigated by Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI) and prosecuted by Public Prosecution Service (PPS).

Multiple sittings on one calendar date will be aggregated into one sitting day based on the Judicial officer, venue and sitting date. Several types of business may be heard within one sitting day. Days are classified on the basis of, in the first instance, the earliest scheduled sitting. Where the start time for 2 or more sittings is the same, the days are classified on the majority of business undertaken. It does not include time in chambers or days where the judiciary are sitting in chambers.

Special sitting

Summary charge

This is an offence which is triable in a Magistrates' court.

Summons

This is the method by which a complaint is made to require a defendant to appear before a court in respect of particular charge(s). The details of the charge(s) will be contained on the summons as well as the first date and place at which the defendant it to attend court.
