

Monthly Bulletin

February 2016

Bomb attack on Constable Peadar Heffron: Police Ombudsman report

An investigation by the Police Ombudsman, Dr Michael Maguire, has found insufficient evidence to support an allegation that a piece of information given to police, if acted upon, could have prevented the bomb attack on the former PSNI Constable Peadar Heffron in 2010.

Quarterly Statistical Bulletin

Frequently Asked Questions

Ombudsman justifies Taser use during knife incidents

Detention officer justified in striking teenager

A Police Ombudsman investigation has concluded that a civilian police employee who struck a teenager used “necessary force” after being bitten on the hand.

No misconduct in police seizure of phone

An investigation into a complaint that the police confiscated a woman’s mobile phone so they could destroy footage of them carrying out an assault has found no evidence of police misconduct.

Discipline for suspicious death failings

The Police Ombudsman has recommended disciplinary action against ten police officers after finding failings in the way police investigated a man’s disappearance and suspicious death.

facebook PoliceOmbudsmanNI

F @PONIPressOffice

YouTube PoliceOmbudsmanNI

www.policeombudsman.org

11 Church Street
BELFAST
BT1 1PG
02890 828600

info@policeombudsman.org